Student Council Elections : A Lesson in Democracy

May began on a high note as the Student Council Elections brought the spirit of democracy alive on campus. Campaign posters, manifestos, and powerful speeches sparked dialogue across grades, as students discovered both their voices and the responsibility that comes with choice. With ballots cast and hopes high, our future leaders were voted into power by their peers.

Investiture Ceremony: A Moment of Honour

The journey from nomination to election reached its proud finale at the Investiture Ceremony. With sashes worn and badges pinned, our newly elected student leaders stepped forward to take their oaths. Surrounded by applause and anticipation, they pledged to serve with integrity, empathy, and vision. It was a moment that celebrated not just leadership – but the trust and values that define Loyola.

Junior Reflections 2025 - Young Minds Reflect

Junior Reflections 2025 brought together the very essence of Loyola's approach to education – a blend of academic depth, creativity, and cultural grounding. Students in Grades 1 to 5 led the way with projects in science, technology, engineering, art, and math, turning classrooms into hubs of innovation. Whether it was a confident presentation to a judge, a thoughtful book recommendation at the fair, or a melody shared on stage – this was a day where young minds took ownership of their learning, their heritage, and their voice.

Holistic Development

A Frame Full of Love - Mother's day & Family Day

Family is the first place we learn to love, to trust, and to belong. It is love that listens, heals, and stays – no matter the distance or time. It's a love that anchors, uplifts, and shapes who we become.

At Loyola, Mother's Day was a celebration of unconditional love, where children pampered their moms with smiles, games, mom & me art workshop and surprises. Twinning outfits and the suave ramp walks turned the morning into a beautiful memory shared between hearts.

On Family day, Students shared stories of gratitude and created picture frames that reminded us – family love is both grounding and inspiring.

Celebrating Compassion, Empathy and Respect

At Loyola, compassion isn't just a value — it's a way of seeing, honouring, and uplifting every person in our community. This month, compassion found its voice — in words, actions, and the spaces in between.

Labour Day:

Dignity lies in every role, every effort, and every hand that helps build a better world. Students paid tribute to everyday heroes and highlighted the value of service.

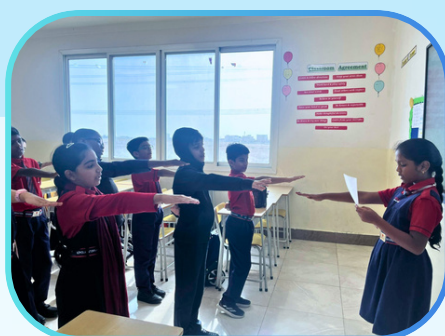

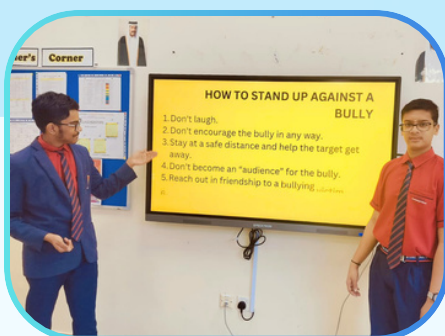

Gratitude Evening: A Celebration of Service

Loyola's Gratitude Evening was dedicated entirely to our incredible support staff. Filled with games, fun activities, music, and joy, the evening was our way of saying a heartfelt thank you for their support, warmth, and presence in our Loyola family.

Celebrating Brotherhood with Ikha'a Initiative:

At Loyola, we believe empathy is strength, and kindness is courage in action. As part of the Ikhaa Initiative, students engaged in pledges, posters, campaigns, and videos — each echoing the message: Bullying ends where awareness begins.

Bridging Time

Museum Day reminded our learners that history is not behind us — it's beneath us, forming the ground we walk on. Through interactive exhibits and lively quizzes, students explored connections between culture, heritage, and identity — seeing how the past still speaks to the present.

Power in Play

Play teaches us balance — between winning and losing, pushing and pacing, leading and learning. In every match and race, students built strength that goes far beyond the field.

Athletics Day

From early learners to seniors, the track came alive with races, relays, and high-fives.

Inter-School Kho Kho Championship:

Oasis Campus proudly hosted the Inter-School Kho Kho Championship, welcoming over 60 teams from across Qatar. The field echoed with strategy, teamwork, and a deep respect for India's heritage sport.

Kindergarten Magic

In Kindergarten, every colour is a discovery and every habit is a seed of growth. Our youngest learners shine the brightest when they play, explore, and learn with joy.

Yellow Day

Yellow Day lit up the campus with cheer as children dressed in sunshine tones and explored the colour through songs, crafts, and smiles. The day was a burst of brightness – just like them.

Handwashing Activity

With playful demonstrations and support from teachers and a guest from Ministry of Public Health, children learned how to keep their hands clean and their bodies healthy. It was fun, educational, and full of bubbles!

Intelligence plus character – that is the goal of true education.

Gaining Perspectives : Learning Beyond the Walls

Some lessons are best learned through experience.

By stepping into real environments, students discover how their learning truly applies.

CUQ Robotics Lab

The Robotics Lab at CUQ introduced our tech enthusiasts to the exciting possibilities of artificial intelligence and automation. They learned by doing – and dreamed by building.

Industrial Visit

Our senior Commerce students took a guided tour through a live Industrial Facility, observing production processes and business operations in action. The visit offered direct exposure to the core of how industries run, scale, and serve.

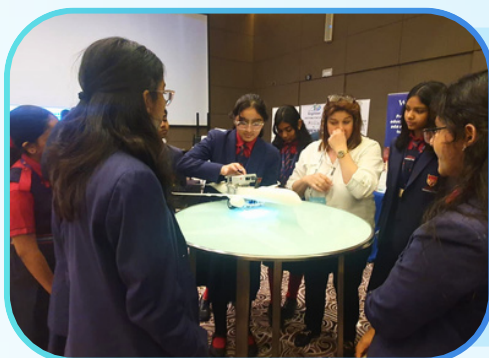

Retail Marketing Tour

At a live retail outlet, learners observed product placement, customer journeys, and sales dynamics firsthand. They learned that good marketing isn't just creative – it's strategic, psychological, and real.

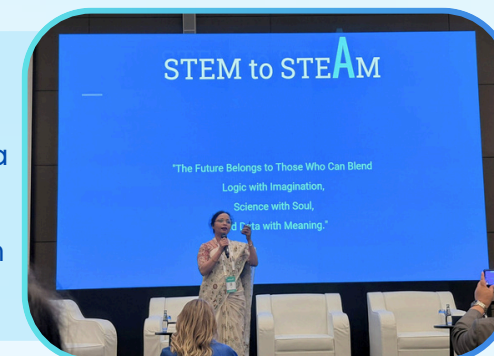

Smart Education Conference

At the Smart Education Conference, students joined future-forward sessions on sustainability, robotics, and design thinking. Their voices echoed on panels and their minds opened to new possibilities.

STEM to STEAM - Smart Education Conference

Adding to the prestige, our Principal Ms. Bhavna VS addressed a wide audience of educators and innovators. Her keynote and panel leadership added depth and direction to the conversation on how education must evolve in a rapidly changing world.

Inter-School Teachers Forum

Loyola educators participated in the Interschool Teachers' Forum exploring the theme "Guiding with Respect, Growing with Grace." Ms. Navya Raveendran represented the school as a panel speaker, sharing powerful insights on feedback that fosters confidence and growth.

ICC Carnival

It was culture, colour, and charisma on stage as Loyola students dazzled the audience at ICC Carnival 2025! Their energetic performances brought Indian heritage to life
